

On Your Feet Again

Tonic

I'll pick you up beneath the stars
When you slowly fade
Beneath the blue skies above
We'll all look the same
You just need somethin'
To get you on your feet again, yeah
You picked a life that you can't trust
But it makes you mad
An' all along you wonder why
You just feel sad
If you feel like love
Can get you on your feet again
You just need somethin'
To get you on your feet again, on your feet again
Did they give you more than your life could keep
Does it speak to you when you fall asleep

Can you walk away [Incomprehensible] that you know
Could you hide the strength, would you let it show
If you feel like love
Can get you on your feet again
You just need something
To get you on your feet again, on your feet again
If you feel like love
Can get you on your feet again
I'll pick you up beneath the stars
When you slowly fade
Beneath the blue skies above
We'll all look the same
If you feel like love can get you on
If you feel like love can get you
I'll pick you up beneath the stars
