A Warning

Erling Wold

I'm a monster so don't walk my way
Don't trust my smile my teeth are like knives
I'll drag you down and suck you dry
Don't laugh at my jokes, the punchline is murderDon't enjoy my touch, every caress hides a choke hold
I'm only happy when I've ruined everything I see
Believe everything you've ever heard about me, suck it up
If you see me coming don't stop, just turn and walk the other wayI will not lie about what I have done
I will not lie about what I will do to you
The sweat of my exertion is pure poison, I'm hell
