

Afraid of Love

Katie Todd

Iâ€™m heading out to where the people canâ€™t pronounce my name

Say it loud babe (x2)

The sun is out and shining but the air is tasting gray

Shut your door babe (x2)

Now sheâ€™s walking without shoes and then she kneels on down to pray

Then youâ€™re trying hard to remind her so she doesnâ€™t slip away

And over there you are safe in your haven

Over there you are meant to be

All along you were wrong but it was too late you were gone

Moving on, afraid of love

Now its pretty hard to not notice when she uped and ran away

She was seventeen and I think holding it above all was afraid that sheâ€™d make way

And over there you are safe in your haven

Over there you are meant to be

All along you were wrong

but it was too late you were gone

Moving on, afraid of love

Over there you are safe in your haven

Over there you are meant to be

All along you were wrong

but it was too late you were gone

Moving on, afraid of love
