

Here Comes That Sick Bitch

Hardcore Superstar

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I get a little sentimental when I fall
I get a little too much
When you push me too far
Don't you be sad
But I'm the best that you've had
It hurts a little too much
And it got out of hand I know it's so wrong
Been there before
But I always want more
Hope you can see
You don't matter to me
Go set me free Oh no here comes
That sick bitch again
So put your guard up
Because she wants a sick man
Some day she will be your friend
Then break you down, down again
My friend You nail me to the wall
If I don't answer your calls
You say it ain't easy
Uneasy you are
I feel a bit sad
I know it's bad
You don't mean shit to me
That's what she said I know it's so wrong
Been there before
But I always want more
Hope you can see
You don't matter to me
Go set me free Oh no here comes
That sick bitch again
So put your guard up

Because she wants a sick man
Some day she will be your friend
Then break you down, down again
My friend, again I get a little sentimental when I fall
I get a little too much
When you push me too far
Don't you be sad
But I'm the best that you've had
It hurts a little too much
And it got out of hand
