Happy Now

Amy Studt

Happy now, I wonder are you happy now? Now that you've had me and I'm on my own All alone, are you happy now? I recall the way you always looked at me You chose those words effectively To work your way inside of meI had so much to give But you didn't have to take it all The pain I'm left with, I'm wondering Are you happy, now? Are you happy now? Happy now, I wonder are you still happy now? Now that I've left you and you're on your own All alone, are you happy now? What goes around comes around What goes up must come down Down, down, downWhy did it take me so long to See you make me so unhappy Now I know, now I knowHappy now, guess you could say I'm happy now We'll meet again someday, somehow but until then Look, who's happy? Look who's happy, now? Look, who's happy, now? 'Cause you could make him happy now
