

Ready Now

Souleye

Only the finest for your highness /
Natural like the pollen that the bees collect /
Let's build this nest /
The emperor empire /
Environment meant to make men /
Think a little bit more /
Or less Identified time /
Is what we make of it /
Make of it /
Cheers for ever /
Be my sweet sweet cinnamon /
My Pocahontas /
The holy goddess /
For Women I hold the highest /
For without you /
There would be no breath for me /
Live in peace /
I walk the streets connected /
And shatter the fad /
Lavish you in everlasting laughs /
And love that unites ignites the night nice

She knew she found a place
To be safe and rest /
The view was expansive /
Clear and optimistic /
Tis the season
For unwrapping the moment /
Low and behold /
Her heart was held and protected /
Finally, she is respected /
Not just an equal /
A healing force for all of
Those who hide inside /
No longer forced to live in fear /
Her power is too strong /
So gone are the days /
Where God takes shape of a man /
Oppression now we look

Forward and stand /
Awakening in me through my dream states /
This collective pool /
We're swimming in /
