Chicago

Alexz Johnson

Give ?em up let ?em go,
And follow let them follow
Take a breathe steal away, let them play these games play these games
Can?t cry, won?t fight, not tonight
No turning off these lights
Cant shout can?t scream think of me
But I can?t let that be
Holding on, let him go, why do we do this we don?t know
Stepping out standing up what belongs still hanging longer
Slipped away off my feet
Can?t believe how ive been floating lately
This is a new avenue
Know what to do
Just gotta let it take me
On a plane im leaving for Chicago
Any place I go you can?t run
Leaving town won?t be found here tomorrow
Telling stories mine has just begun
Take over
Leaving no traces
Only smiling faces in the sun
Starting over
Tying up my laces
But the damage is done
Run away the new rave
It?d loosen now its loosing me
Caught between being me oh tragedy tragedy
Running high cloud 9
Won?t let me through there gates no more
Found a place to escape, unlock the door
Leaving another girls soul
Oh you?ll be fine, about time
Need someone to hold back my hands
Let me loose, let me fall, they?ll understand understand
Heard them once maybe twice they?ll find you in a ditch somewhere
Spreading wings these little things are
Keeping you out the front gate

On a plane im leaving for Chicago

Any place I go you can?t run
Leaving town won?t be found here tomorrow
Telling stories mine has just begun
Take over
Leaving no traces
Starting over
Tying up my laces
Shutting you out
Shutting you out (The damage is done)
Shutting you out (Im shutting you out)
Im gonna leave behind
One step at a time
Im gonna do it cause I said so
Im gonna make it cause I said so
Hey yeah yeah shutting you out
Hey yeah
Yeah im shutting you out
Im shutting you out
Im gonna shut you out
Take over
Tying up my laces
The damage is done
Damage is done
