Alphabet Soup (live)

Bell X1

I should have known
By the arc of the empty wine glass
I should have known
'Cause you step on, don't walk over cracksLooking over my shoulder
To see you looking back over yours
But you were paying the ferryman
Even after Chris said don'tBut you're not Maud Gonne
Not Maud Gonne
No you're not Maude GonneYou're not Maud Gonne
But then again neither was she
The only one talking now
Is my alphabet soupI'd say you'd like children
But you couldn't eat a whole one
The only one talking now
Is my alphabet soup
And he's on a loopI should have known
But I only caught a glimpse
I should have known
It was a beautifulRed wine soaked glimpse
I was other peoples' children
I could always be sent home
In front of someone else'sBlue screen
For someone else's showWhat's that you're saying to me
Tomato coated spaghetti?It's gonna be OK
