Bulletproof

Greg Holden

You've been digging like
An old miner from a different time
Searching through the rubble and cold
To find something to fill your soulWhen it all comes out, you were getting paid
Living in the dark for a minimum wage
Your story's gone but the message stays
And just like a fire it'll burn awayYes, it's true
Everything you know will be leaving you
Someday soon
So don't go thinking you're bullet proof
See this through
If you learn to trust what love can do
You will find there's more to life than youOooohh
Oooohh
OooohhProfits come and go
And like scared sheep, we follow
And through the wild fire
We go deeply, singing to their greedAnd when it all comes out, they were getting paid
The grey Carhartts for a minimum wage
You better learn your lesson and walk away
'Cause sometimes people aren't what they sayYes, it's true
Everything you know will be leaving you
Someday soon
So don't go thinking you're bullet proof
See this through
If you learn to trust what love can do
You will find there's more to life than you(Oooohh)
You will find there's more to life than you
(Oooohh)
You will find there's more to life than you
(Oooohh)
You will find there's more to life than you
(Oooohh)Yes, it's true
Everything you know will be leaving you
Someday soon
So don't go thinking you're bullet proofYes, it's true
Everything you know will be leaving you
Someday soon
So don't go thinking you're bullet proof

See this through
If you learn to trust what love can do
You will find there's more to life than you
You will find there's more to life than you
You will find there's more to life than you(Oooohh)
Than you
(Oooohh)
You will find there's more to life than you
(Oooohh)
You will find there's more to life than you
(Oooohh)
Yeah, you will find there's more to life
