

Needle (Acoustic)

Born Ruffians

I belong to no one
Like the watermelon
Rolling with momentum
Spitting out its seeds
Buried under snow and
Waiting just to show us
How it grows and knows how
Yummy it will be I belong to no one
A song without an album
Long forgotten maxim
Spoken to the sea
I belong with no one
I belong with no one
I belong with no one
You belong with me When I was a boy I
Wished that I was older
Wished that I was taller, tall enough to see
See the things I see today
Now I wish they'd go away
How they led me far astray
Stray from what I need Needle in the hay
Lost but in my place
Peaceful in my way
Hope I never have to sew again
Tumble, tumble down
As I strike the ground
Make a mighty sound
Know what I am,
Know that I've found a way A way
A way
A way to always belong
Belong
Belong
Won't be long until I am gone I am just a no one
I'm the same as everyone
Spinning underneath the sun, head between my knees
I belong to no one
I am a minimum
Rolling into bigger sums, adding them to me Needle in the hay

Lost but in my place
Peaceful in my way
Hope I never have to sew again
Tumble, tumble down
As I strike the ground
Make a mighty sound
Know what I am
Know that I've found a way A way
A way
Belong
Belong
Won't be long until I am gone
A way
Belong
A way
Belong
