Walking Away

Ian Van Dahl

Another sleepless night I open up my eyes I found the reason why
I feel the time has come To make it on my own I'm heading for the sun
I'm walking away To find a brighter day I'm walking away No reason left to stay
I'm walking away [x4]

I still feel safe and sound But it's time to break new ground And turn my life around
I've wasted too much time On things I could not find I leave this place behind
I'm walking away [x4]
