

crawl

daysleeper

Out there you're gotta walk so proud
You say you wanna leave this crowd
    Today, a shot away, you slip
Seems like you're gonna lose your grip
    Invisible, invisible
You live and you will die, so stoned
    And still you wonder why, alone
    So fake, no mercy
    You fall
    You break, no pity
    You crawl
    So fake, no mercy
    You fall
    You break, no pity
    You crawl

A wreck, a tragedy, a sign
    So sad the memory, redline
Too late to build a bridge on trust
    I see the gold has turned to dust
    Invisible, invisible
You live and you will die, so stoned
    And still you wonder why, alone
    So fake, no mercy
    You fall
    You break, no pity
    You crawl
    So fake, no mercy
    You fall
    You break, no pity
    You crawl
