All New Low

No Warning

This is my way of laughing in your face
Taking what I've learned and saying fuck this place
Greedy little hands don't think I see
Now I know I'm sleeping with the enemyWhat I hold in my fist, I won't let go for a price
A chance to be me, I won't think twice
Can only see myself doing what I'm doing now
Don't want to look to my future, I don't know howWho's it gonna be that fills your big name
While you sleep with one eye open in the hall of shame
Is it time for a career change? I won't be your stepping stoneI'll do fine on my own ?
T has been reached an all new low
What do I do? Where do I go?
Are we using our brains 'cause it doesn't showWe gotta take it, take it, take it
Take it while we can
I know the opportunity won't rise againSearching and searching just to feel confused
I won't be defeated, I won't be abused
Still the same as before, this time with a little moreI'll do fine on my own
It has been reached an all new low
What do I do? Where do I go?
Are we using our brains 'cause it doesn't showIt doesn't show, this is my sacrifice
I go through everyday
Just so I can be here 'cause anywhere else
Wouldn't feel the same, fuck it
