Friends Are Evil

Jesu

And all the stones I've thrown
they come back twice as strong.
And all the stones i've thrown, tell me that nothing lastsAnd all stones you've thrown,
come from your highest throne.
Pass them on to me below,
they remind me nothing lastsAnd all the stones I've thrown,
they come back twice as strong.
And all the stones I've thrown,
they tell me nothing lasts.(w/echo effects on verse)
And all stones you've thrown, they come from your highest throne.
Pass them on to me below,
they remind me nothing lasts
