Love and Only Love

Conway Twitty

Someone is lying next to me tonight
Wishing I was someone else and I? m wishing she was right
It? s not her fault and it? s not mine
We did the best we could
But it? s love and only love
That makes the loving good.We lie and say I love you to each other one more time
And all the while we force our smiles to tory to ease our minds
She? s just like me; she had someone she? d go back if she could
'Cause it? s love and only love that makes the loving good.I cannot forget someone I left so long ago
Looking for some thrill I guess but what I just don? t know
No I threw away the best I had
I never understood
That It? s love and only love
That makes the loving good.It? s love and only love
That makes the loving good...
