

Stranger (With a Familiar Face)

Fates Warning

Something in me
I don't understand, a demand
A threatening voice
With a firm commandA liar, a danger
A killer, a stranger
Yeah, I guess that's meI will extol you
I will control you
I will pick you up
Just to let you downI will desire you
I will tire of you
I will pull you in
Just to see you drownSomeone in me
I don't recognize, a disguise
A faint reflection
With far away eyesA liar, a danger
A killer, a stranger
Yeah, I guess that's meI will extol you
I will control you
I will build you up
Just to tear you downI will desire you
I will tire of you
I will pull you in
Just to see you drownI will extol you
I will control you
I will lift you up
Just to drag you downI will desire you
I will tire of you
I will pull you in
Just to see you drown
