

Radio

Alesha Dixon

Pop, rock, rhythm and blues
Anything you got
I don't have time to choose
Big speakers, I'll sing along
Last request, DJ, I need a song
He can't break my heart
If I can't hear a word, I can't hear a word
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
I'll drown you out
'Cause I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
'Cause my heart can't let go yet
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
Choose, get me, frequency
If I find signal maybe you won't leave
Headphones cover my ears
Keep smiling, fight back the tears
He can't break my heart
If I can't hear a word, I can't hear a word
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio

I'll drown you out
'Cause I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
'Cause my heart can't let go yet
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
I'm turning up the radio
Ah, whoa, oh, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh, oh, radio
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh, oh, radio
I'll drown you out
Don't say it now
'Cause I'm turning up the radio
Don't say it now

I'm turning up the radio
I'll drown you out
'Cause I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
'Cause my heart can't let go yet
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
