

Soulweeper #2

Volbeat

Settle down for a moment cause your heart is beating hard
Baby you've been my lover, and I told you from the start
 Better no promises, and I'll do you no harm
 But you're keen on the question I tell you not to pop
But maybe it's been a hurting, it's been hurting from the start
 Do you not coping then tear it apart
 Never wanted it this way
 Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it
 Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue
A barren winter came over and your mood was like a fire
 7 years and a summer, and you still sit there cry
 You're better without me, and you're one of a kind
 If I knew that December should bring a silent part
 Shaded truth and partisan between disperated lines

 Truly now drifting alone in the dark
 Never wanted it this way
 Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it
 Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue
 Well it's over and a letter is flying high
 Out the window to catch a hand of thine
 Could the founder release it's bloody words
 Scream the anger and sorrow of a girl
 But you're keen on the question I tell you not to pop
But maybe it's been a hurting, it's been hurting from the start
 Do you not coping then tear it apart
 Never wanted it this way
 Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it
 Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue
 Maybe you feel it to, baby I'm blue
