All Over Again

Ronan Keating

Turn down the light, turn up the radio
There's a fire in your eyes and it's keeping me warm
Hold on to me like it was yesterday
When we both felt our spirits collide
I remember the moment being struck down by lightning
Since the first time I saw your face and you smiled
Come and lay down with me, fill the space that's between us
Feel the magic that keeps love alive
This time can be like the first time
Close your eyes and soon we'll be there
No man could ever guess what you're feeling
Turn a spark to a flame, make a wish, close your eyes
Won't you start all over again
Just like the first time that you touched my skin
All over again
I tasted heaven, take me there again
All over again
Your smile, your touch, your taste
It turns me on and on and on
That I fall in love with you
All over again
Come and step through the stars
Take a ride through the universe
As long as we're here, let's take the whole thing in What I'm trying to say is that you are so beautiful
Let me say it all over again
'Cause this time can be like the first time
Close your eyes, pretty soon we'll be there
No man could ever guess what you're feeling
Turn a spark to a flame, make a wish, close your eyes
Won't you start all over again
Just like the first time you touched my skin
All over again
I tasted heaven, take me there again
All over again
Your smile, your touch, your taste
It turns me on and on and on
Then I fall in love with you
Then I fall in love with you

I keep falling in love with you
All over again
All over again
All over again
All over again
