

Never Knew

The Rocket Summer

I just ran into a few someone's today
Someone's that I never really knew
And I used to think how I had them all so figured out But no, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true So I'm burning the thoughts of the things that I once said
Because you tore down the walls
That the world that has put inside my head
And I just get of sick of things that we think, we think we know And no, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true So take me and save me and change me and then make me
And embrace me and then brave my heart for you
No, no, 'cuz I can't go on without you
And it's time for something never knowing, oh And no, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true And as they as strolled along, my heart broke out in song
From all the things and the thoughts
And assumptions that I had wrong See now I'll be on my way to make this claim
I'll make it famous in everyway
I'll make it stay when I will save it No, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true No, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true
Oh, no, no, no No, none of it's true 'cuz I never knew you
And now the truth of it is, is I wanna be like you
So hello, good friend, I wanna be next to you
For my head, for my heart, for it's true
