No Chance

Terminal Choice

you say you love me but I can't believe the way you do the things you do you put me in a golden cage and I'm sure you've lost the keyWhen I'm alone at night I close my eyes and I can see you again you know in reality there is no chance for you and methere is no chance for you and me there is no chanceyou say you love me but I can't believe
and I'm sure you've lost the key it's not the way you can hold me so what I do is to break free and now you sit there with your broken eyes and again I'm telling lies
