Comfortably Dumb

Pink Razors

I?m paralyzed, process information at the speed of light
I?m frozen in motion
Desensitized, over stimulated matter over mind
I know it
I have become comfortably dumb
(I have become comfortably dumb)
I have become comfortably dumb
(I have become comfortably dumb)
I must confess, highly educated in my ignorance
I'm not stupid, still lucid
Indifferent, watching a world amuse itself to death
I?m muted
I have become comfortably dumb
(I have become comfortably dumb)
I have become, come, comfortably dumb

(I have become comfortably dumb)
What? When? Why? Where?
How come? Who cares?
Knock, knock, who?s there?
No one, how come? Who cares?
I have become, I, comfortably dumb, dumb
I, I, I have become, I, I, comfortably dumb
(I have become comfortably dumb)
I, I have become, I, comfortably dumb
(I have become comfortably dumb)
Take me away, so far away
So far away, won?t somebody take me away?
Take, take it all away
Take it, take, take it, take it, yeah
