Let It Rain

Leona Lewis

(Let it, let it, let it, let it rain)
Bare foot on broken glass
Each step reminds me of the past
These scars I hide,
They fade away, disappear with time
This time
I'm ready for it all,
I wanna let it pour
My heart is open wide.
I feel it on my skin,
I wanna drink you in
can't you see it in my eyes

It's in the air, you're everywhere
Don't let it slip away,
Can't wait another day
Let it, let it, let it, let it rain
No breath, breathe into me
Your eyes, they bring me to my knees
I reach out and you'll understand, Ohh
So close, I feel you touch my hand
My hand
I'm ready for it all,
Don't wanna let it pour
My heart is open wide.

I feel it on my skin,
I wanna drink you in
Can't you see it in my eyes
It's in the air, you're everywhere
Don't let it slip away,
Can't wait another day
Let it, let it, let it, let it rain
Let it fall
Let it wash away all the pain
Time to stop holding on, Ohh
Let it crash
Let it all come down
Cause I've seen all the words from the hurt

Now the sun is coming out
Ready for it all
I wanna let it pour
My heart is open wide.
I feel it on my skin,
I wanna drink you in
Can't you see it in my eyes
It's in the air, you're everywhere
Don't let it slip away,
Can't wait another day
Let it, let it, let it, let it rain
