

Grey Day

Zoot Woman

No relief from this blue melody
Blue right words escape me
Love you go down
Love is a race now

Know your face from this blue memory
Opened us close on me
Love you go down love no trace now

Put your smile on my face stop me wasting away
Make a promise and break
Green light all the way to a grey day

Love you go down
Love is a race now

Put your smile on my face stop me wasting away
Make a promise and break
Green light all the way to a grey day

Each new voice and good times let me be
Change the tune sounds the same

Put your smile on my face stop me wasting away
Make a promise and break
Green light all the way to a grey day
