

Tiny Little Bows

Carly Rae Jepsen

Cupid, draw back your bowNew York
Tell me how you feel about it
We just met yeah
We just metL.A.
Ask me for the truth about it
We just met
And I wish we could be holding hands
I wish we could be holding handsHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
You're the one that I know
And everywhere you are
Is a place I wanna go
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
You're the one that I know
And everywhere you are
Is a place I wanna go
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowParis
Do you ever think about us
Watching TV in your bed
Hey London
Call me if you think about it
Don't forget
I wish we could be holding hands
I wish we could be holding handsHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
You're the one that I know
And everywhere you are
Is a place I wanna go
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
You're the one that I know

And everywhere you are
Is a place I wanna go
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowCupid, draw back your bow
And let your arrow go
Straight to my lover's heart
For me
For meHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowHow do you think it goes
With those tiny little bows?
You're the one that I want
Dancing really high
Dancing really slowI wish we could be holding hands
Dancing really slow
