Gary

Guttural Riot

Gary had one tooth, he played the saxophone, Gary smoked his crack and he loves to be alone, Gary don't know how to drive yeah Gary's barely alive oh Gary put down the gun!

Gary had a smile every single day, Gary had no job yeah he threw he's life away someone please tell Gary it don't have to be this way, steady watchin Gary decay in downtown LA

Snap, crackle, pop Gary's back on the rock, he's got it in his sock and as soon as that door's locked the party will begin as soon as it ends no one will remember Gary when he's dead

Gary's got nothin to really celebrat but Gary likes to party in the sunshine state, Gary's givin up you can see it in his face, just another day od"ing in the section 8

Snap, crackle, pop Gary's back on the rock, he's got it in his sock and as soon as that door's locked the party will begin as soon as it ends no one will remember Gary when he's dead

Doin bumps in the bathroom stall, Gary's drunk at the fox hills mall, he starts to twitch he starts to itch, he'll suck your sick for another hit!
