Fill This Place

Roy Fields

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Let the embers burn in me
Let the fire arise to thee
You have cracked this heart of stone
You have called me as Your own

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Let the embers burn in me
Let the fire arise to thee
You have cracked this heart of stone
You have called me as Your own

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Let the embers burn in me
Let the fire arise to thee
You have cracked my heart of stone
I have revelation You have called me as Your own

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Lord fill this place
Let me feel Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

Oh...
Just tell Him right now right here Lord
Fill this place
I make the space for You Lord
Fill this place
Take out the heart of stone
You've called me as Your own

Lord fill this place
Let me fell Your embrace
Oh Lord touch this heart of mine
With Your love so divine

So divine

Come on tell him tonight
I make room for You Lord
Let it fall
Take up all this space
I wanna see Your face

Lord fill this place
With Your love so divine

So divine
