Second Summer

YACHT

When I first met you
I'd thought I'd forget you...Now when I wake up
I rise for the sake of a boy
Who belongs
In a songNow when we kiss
I feel like physics
Are trueThe world it spins
My body begins
With you
Falling in
To the sunA second summer of love and I wonder
If this time the sun will not go out
A second summer of love and I wonder
If this time the sun will not go outCan you stand by your love
After push
Push comes to shove?
Can you stand by your man
After shit
Shit hits the fan?Can you stand by your love
After push
Push comes to shove?
Can you stand by your man
After shit
Shit hits the fan?My heart has been hurt
So my heart it can work it
Can feel...We wake up
We weather mistakes
Of a boy
And a girl
Who is strongA second summer of love and I wonder
If this time the sun will not go out
A second summer of love and I wonder
If this time the sun will not go out
It will not go out...Can you stand by your love
After push
Push comes to shove?
Can you stand by your man
After shit
Shit hits the fan?Can you stand by your love

After push
Push comes to shove?
Can you stand by your man
After shit
Shit hits the fan?A second summer of love
I wonder if it will
Not go out.A second summer of love
I wonder if it will
Not go outA second summer of love
I wonder if it will
Not go outA second summer of love
I wonder if it will
Not go out...Can you stand by your love
After push
Push comes to shove?
Can you stand by your man
After shit
Shit hits the fan?
