

Marionette

Famous Last Words

The stage is set for the scene
The special guest it must be me cause I'm the only one in this room
Except for my love, on stage, who's tied up awaiting doom
To my surprise suddenly I see
On stage his scene partner is me
So I'll sit down and take my seat
Enjoy the show meant just for me
The torturous rage that's performed on this stage
As I gaze at myself playing this role
It makes me feel whole
When I'm in full control
I'm no longer a doll that you own
She cuts
Slices
Watches the blood drip down his arm just for the rush
He's confused
What will he do?
No intermission, onto act two!
I'll string you up
Make you my puppet
Lock in your arms and legs
My special marionette!
The torturous rage that's performed on this stage
As I gaze at myself playing this role
(Never felt this way before)
It makes me feel whole
When I'm in full control
I'm no longer a doll that you own
You've ruined me and everything
That used to seem
Pleasant to me
Is now a broken mockery
Nostalgic lost reality
But now it seems within these dreams
The power all belongs to me
And now you know there is no hope
So I'll take this knife and slice it through your throat
For you there is no hope
You've ruined me and everything
That used to seem
Pleasant to me
Is now a broken mockery
Nostalgic lost reality
But now it seems within these dreams
The power all belongs to me

And now you know there is no hope
So I'll take this knife and slice it through your throat
The torturous rage that's performed on this stage
As I gaze at myself playing this role
(Never felt this way before)
It makes me feel whole
When I'm in full control
I'm no longer a doll that you own
