Chimes of Freedom

Bruce Springsteen

Well, far between sundown's finish and midnight's broken toll

We ducked inside the doorway, thunder crashin'

As majestic bells of boats struck shadows in the sun

Seeming to be the chimes of freedom crashin'Flashin' for the warriors whose strength is not to fight

Flashin' for the refugees on their unarmed road of flight

And for each and every underdog soldier in the night

We gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashin'Well, in the city's melted furnace, unexpectedly we watched

With faces hidden here while the walls were tightenin'

As the echo of the wedding bells before the blowing rain

Dissolved into the wild bales of lightnin'Yeah, tollin' for the rebel, yeah, tollin' for the raked

Tollin' for the luckless, the abandoned and forsake

Yeah, tollin' for the outcasts, burnin' constantly at stakes

And we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashin'And then through a cloud-like curtain, in a far off corner flashed

There's a hypnotic, splattered mist was slowly liftin'

Well, electric light still struck like arrows

Fired but for the ones, condemned to drift or else be kept from driftin'Well, tollin' for the searching ones on this speechless, secret trail

For the lonesome haunted lovers with too personal a tale

And for each young heart, for channeled soul misplaced inside a jail

Yeah, we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashin'Well, starry eyed and laughin' I recall when we were caught

Trapped by an old track of vows for the hands suspended

As we listened one last time, and we watched with one last look

Spellbound and swallowed "Has the tollin' ended?" Yeah, tollin' for the achin' ones whose wounds cannot be nursed

For the countless, confused, accused, misused strung out ones at worst And for every hung out person in the whole wide universe Yeah, we gazed upon the chimes of freedom flashin'
