

Worried Mind

Wanda Jackson

You've promised me love that would never die
That promise you've made was only a lie
Now after you've gone all alone
I'll pine for all that I've got is a worried mind
When I was down, you've just left me there
I needed you so, oh but you didn't care
You've found a new love and a home so fine
But all that I've got is a worried mind
(You've promised me love)
You've promised me love
(That would never die)
That would never die
(That promise you've made)
That promise you've made
(Was only a lie)
Was only a lie
Now after you've gone all alone
I'll pine for all that I've got is a worried mind
(Is a worried mind)
