Carry Me

The Jealous Girlfriends

Yeah, so Ill be on my way
With only memories to fade
And all I carry with me
All the things I never see
Im gonna look nowIf I jump and fall and land
Flat on my face again
Then I know this too shall pass
'Cause never ever really lasts
No not even the badAnd it's true my heart's a mess
Oh, but it was never really clean I guess
I have said all I will confess to youNow it's just open road and open eyes
And right where the water meets the sky
Is where Ill hold you my dear
No youll never be so near
As when my eyes are on the horizon
