This Is Me

Novice

All alone and without you this is me
So caught up in my own head
That I can't see whatt your working in me
I don't wanna miss this I can't go on without you
And now your crying out to me and you try to get to me
You try to get to me..This is me..this is me..
I don't want to hold back, anything
This is me..this is me..
Now that you can see, tell me what you thinkSo as we walk along side by side
I couldnt think of anything better
You were always in my heart and on my mind
And now that things are different
And I will feel alright if I just let you in There's nothing holding me back...
I forget when you said, "It's so hard!"
Here I go...
And I understand what you meant when you said
This doesnt matterThis is me..this is me..
I don't want to hold back anything
This is me..this is me..
Now that you can see, tell me what you thinkDon't walk away this is not the time I thought that I'd let yo know I'm here and I'm with you
Don't walk away this is not the time I thought that I'd let you know I'm here and I'm with you
I'm feeling this momet so perfect I can't wait to tell you..just how I feel tonightThis is me..this is me..
I don't want to hold back anything
This is me this is me
Now that you can see, tell me what you think
This is me this is me
I don't want to hold back anything
This is me this is me
Now that you can see, tell me what you think
