

Mr. Postman

Diana Vickers

Technology (technology)
Is kinda boring me (boring me)
I can't hold it tight in the night
And that's no good for me
There's no fairytale (fairytale)
In your kind of mail (kinda mail)
One click away everyday
Don't leave no paper trail
Hope you understand
When I hold it in my hand
Hold it to my heart
He doesn't seem so far Oh, Mr. Postman
Won't you knock on my door?
I don't see you no more
I'm waiting day and night, no reply
Oh, Mr. Postman
He loves me dot com
But just one click and we're gone
Sign, seal me with a kiss
Leave me something for the kids It's getting harder
Why won't you deliver?
Don't mean we're lovers
Just because you follow me on twitter
You can make it better
Writin' me a letter
Can't hold a text up to a beating heart
I want our love to linger on
And still remember when we're dead and gone
But who's gonna turn around
Who's gonna slow it down Oh, Mr. Postman
Won't you knock on my door?
I don't see you no more
I'm waiting day and night, no reply
Oh, Mr. Postman
He loves me dot com
But just one click and we're gone
Sign seal me with a kiss
I'm still waiting Mr. Postman
I'm still waiting oh Mr. Postman

I'm still waiting oh Mr. Postman
Mr. Postman
Mr. Postman
Mr. PostmanDa da da da
Da da da da daOh, Mr. Postman
Won't you knock on my door?
I don't see you no more
I'm waiting day and night, no reply
Oh, Mr. Postman
He loves me dot com
But just one click and we're gone
Sign seal me with a kiss
I'm still waiting Mr. Postman
I'm still waiting oh Mr. Postman
I'm still waiting oh Mr. Postman (won't you bring me a letter?)
Oh, Mr. Postman (won't you bring me a letter?)
