

Warlock Mary

TOBACCO

I can always find you easy from the gin and then the swearing

Cut it out, mind you girl, you're the Warlock Mary

I can always find you easy from the gin and then the swearing

Cut it out, mind you girl, you're the Warlock Mary

Locks drying in the morning and you shake it out

Get something wrong that's real to cry about

I can always find you easy from the gin and then the swearing

Cut it out, mind you girl, you're the Warlock Mary

I can always find you easy from the gin and then the swearing

Cut it out, mind you girl, you're the Warlock Mary
