

Time Away

Denali

don't rely on me my feet are stuck and my eyes leak but I feel the ceiling drop the floor rising
it won't stop time away is all I need a curse walks around here I see it hide behind my chair and it peers at me it's grip is so strong
it bruises me everynight the light blows out silence hears me coming everyday it fakes us out
