

A Big Man

John Mayall

It takes a big, big man to handle everything

It takes a big, big man to handle everything

We're the people wearin' and it doesn't meanWe need a big, big man to look out all our fears

You're a big, big man to shoot the world in tears

Oh, yes, world of troubled yearsIt takes a big, big man to handle all the men

It takes a big, big man to handle all those lands

No one seems to have a planIt takes a big, big man to make the world go 'round

It takes a big, big man to make the world go 'round

Hey Miss Junkyard, no one can be found
