Deep Love

Michelle Tumes

The sky is calling to the steeple
As it echoes out my name
I can hear You in the air I breatheSpanning the years that have come and gone
You roll like the ocean underneath the sun
Weaving my soul to the holy one
Weaving on and on withLove, it searches everything, it searches everyone
Your love, it reaches all that I am
And I am overcome by Your
Deep, deep love, deep, deep loveCandles are burning
And I pray that You'll be near me as I kneel
I can see You in the air I breatheSpanning the years that have come and gone
You roll like the ocean underneath the sun
Weaving my soul to the holy one
Weaving on and on withLove, it searches everything, it searches everyone
Your love, it reaches all that I am
And I am overcome by Your
Deep, deep love, deep, deep loveLove, it searches everything, it searches everyone
Your love, it reaches all that I am
And I am overcome by YourLove, it searches everything, it searches everyone
Your love, it reaches all that I am
And I am overcome by Your
Deep, deep love, deep, deep love
Your deep, deep love, deep, deep love, deep, deep, deep
