I Will Fight Alone

Firewind

Battles rage through hamlets and empires
Heroes die, legends are born
The righteous pray all through the eons
Still the evil unsheaths the sword

God of time keeps track of all things
Gathers in the souls of the dead
A champion born, knight reincarnate
I have been chosen for War

Fear, death, blood, flesh
My glory day is here
Overlords, raging hordes
The spoils of war are near

(Chorus)
I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

Answer cries of innocent children
Bury deep the overlords
The banner hails avenging warrior
Savior of a stricken world

Fear, death, blood, flesh
My glory day is here
Overlords, raging hordes
The spoils of war are near

(Chorus)
I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

I will fight alone
Stand and face this army of one
I will stand alone

Until I'm overrun

Hear the seers foretell my lonely demise
Reap the sorceress anger, I am still alive

I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

(Chorus)
I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

Alone

One Man Alone

Alone

The Warrior's Come

(Chorus)
I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

I will fight alone
Stand and face an army of one
I will stand alone
Until I'm overrun

Alone
