

The Harsh Truth Of The Camera Eye (Kill Uncle)

Morrissey

Churchillian legs
Hair barely there
The harsh truth of the camera eye Your eyes signal pain
Because of the strain of smiling
The harsh truth of the camera eye Telling you all
That you never wanted to know
Showing you what
You didn't want shown My so friendly lens
It zooms into
"The inner you"
And it tells the harsh truth
And nothing but Laugh with us all now, here
If you can
Then take the pictures home
And scream Oh, ooh; telling you all
That you never wanted to know
Showing what
You didn't want shown This photographer
He must have really had it in for you "Oh, I don't want
To be judged anymore
I don't want to be judged
I would sooner be Loved
I would sooner be
Just blindly Loved"
