

Won't Talk

Ira Wolf

I'm gonna kick myself awake
When this buzz wears off and lay here in the shame of your arms and I'll keep my eyes low if you keep your eyes low

I won't talk if you won't talk
We can walk away in the morning
I won't call if you won't call We both know it's nothing more than I'm just drunk and you're just drunk
We wake up with guilt in our bones
These shameful souls
I won't talk if you won't

She's gonna wonder where you've been but you won't tell her My friends'll all just turn their heads because they know better
And I'll keep my eyes low if you keep your mouth closed

I wont talk talk if you wont talk no one wants to know what we've done
I won't call if you won't call We both know another night comes and I'll be drunk you'll be drunk
We'll end up down the same road
No one needs to know
So i won't talk if you wont

'cuz this isn't love we're making Only taking I'm just hating everything this is Everything we've been

I know that i am weak
I cant believe how bad i need to feel the way i felt underneath your spell when I'm lonesome you're lonesome

And I wont talk and you won't talk
And we'll just walk away
And I wont call cuz you don't call There's nothing left to say

And when I'm drunk and when you're drunk and all we want is something to hold Take me home

And I won't talk if you won't No I won't talk if you won't
I won't talk if you won't
