The Reaper Man

Trevor Sensor

I look out to a little house
Nearly fallen apart
In there sits the wicked man
Who torched my simple heart
Would it take another step
Towards something that's so vile
He gets up and he looks at me
I show him my denial
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's looking out to me
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's coming to take me, oho
I have spent sleepless nights
Dreaming of the day
That he'll come and take a step
And walk towards my way
But brittle bones and hecky limbs is where I wanna be
All when that wicked man comes for me
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's looking out to me
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's coming to take me, oho
But I believe in redemption,
From a brighter light
But I ain't going with him
Without one last fight
Oh, but that reaper man,
How we loves me so
I can't hear his whispers
As the cold wind blows
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's looking out to me
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's coming to take me, oho
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's looking out to me
Oh, here's THE REAPER MAN
He's coming to take me, oho
