

Daisy Duke

Rooney

I wanna know, all there's to know about you
I want you to know, nothing about me, although I'll give you a taste, when you think that you know me
I'll blow you away, so baby Bow down Daisy Duke You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret
I'm in total control of the situation Bow down Daisy Duke Sit on my couch, snuggle with me through the hard nights
Well, I don't bite, baby, I'll be good to you in the morning
Don't you say no to me, baby, big mistake
I'll throw you away, so baby Bow down Daisy Duke You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret
I'm in total control of the situation Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke I'm much too rough
With the way that I phrase things
I'm sorry for cuffing you
To my bathtub Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret
I'm in total control of the situation Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
