Bruises

Ãœnloco

Please leave me alone
For I can not let this go
It's the lie that I live
Everything that I give

Shut the fuck up

Please tell me that I have grown
For I have bruises left to show
And I fall in between everything

Let me see
Come on, get up
Let me see your bruises

'Cause I will never let you know
'Cause I will never let you go
Please leave me alone

Let me see, let me see, let me see
Come on, get up
Let me see your bruises
