

Father Picard

King Diamond

A new chaplain has arrived
Madeleine and a few other nuns
At the convent will meet him tonightWelcome to my quarters
Do come inside
Welcome dearest sisters
Come into the lightI'm Father Picard, takin' over
Things will be different here
You are the four God has chosen
To be his angels in white
Drink my sweet holy wineOh yeah, come on it's not a crime
From now on every Sunday this time
You will attend this communion of mineFather Picard is hiding something
A white powder for the wineI'm Father Picard, takin' over
Things will be different here
You are the four God has chosen
To be his angels in white
Drink my sweet holy wineOh, the nuns freak out, lust in their eyes
From now on every Sunday this time
Father Picard's in control of their mindsFather Picard is hiding something
The white powder in the wine
