

No Right Thing

Blood Orange

Verse:

You won't hear my name
I can't watch you throw it all away
Away
You are playing games
I'm done trying to help run down(?)
Escape

EscapeChorus:

But you look away
And I look to you
That's where we are
And what we sought(?)Was you on your own
And I on my own
And we were wrong
There's no right thingVerse:

I've been

You've been my everything
And I've seen your worst, baby
This what it comes to
Know that we're brokenI've been changing my whole scene
You need somebody different
This is where we got to
Knowing you're the wrong thing[Chorus]Bridge:

But you can't see me
When you're pushing me away
You can't see me
When you're pushing me away
I'm the one who sees you
I'm the one who needs you

Hmm

(x2)[Chorus]
