Baby Hold On

Leftover Salmon

Baby, hold on, I'm comin' home to you
You know it's been so long
Since we danced by the light of the moon
Oh, I just can't wait to see you smilin' again
So baby, hold on, I'm gonna be home soonAll the time I'm away, you're always on my mind
Any hour of the day, I can remember how fine
So much I want to say to you, so much to feel
As the skies turns gray to blue, two days behind the wheelBaby, hold on, I'm comin' home to you
You know it's been so long
Since we danced by the light of the moon
Oh, I just can't wait to see you smilin' again
So baby, hold on, I'm gonna be home soonEvery time I hear your voice on the telephone line
I can keep it movin' one more day knowin' that you're still mine
No one else in this whole wide world can love me like you do
Gonna be in your arms again before the night is throughSo baby, hold on, I'm comin' home to you
You know it's been so long
Since we danced by the light of the moon
Oh, I just can't wait to see you smilin' again
So baby, hold on, I'm gonna be home soonYeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, oh, ohSo baby, hold on, I'm comin' home to you
You know it's been so long
Since we danced by the light of the moon
Oh, I just can't wait to see you smilin' again
Baby, hold on, I'm gonna be home soon
Yeah, baby, hold on, I'm gonna be home soon
