

Say Goodbye

Norah Jones

Bring me back to good old days
When you let me misbehave Always knew it wouldn't last But if you ask I'd go again, yeah I'd go again
It's alright, it's okay
I don't need you anyway
You don't have to tell the truth,
'cause if you do I'll tell it too, oh I'll tell it too Well it ain't easy to stay in love, if you can't tell lies So I'll just have to take a bow
and say goodbye
Oooo...
I'm loosened up but it's too late to turn it around I'm droppin' bolts on the ground and I'm comin' unwound Don't you miss the good old days when I let you misbehave Why you're lookin' down like that I know that you're dyin' to come back, please come on back
Well it ain't easy to stay in love,
when you tellin' lies
So I'll just have to take a bow
and say goodbye
Oooo...
