Hate Me

Tantric

Yeah, tell me again out on a limb
I won't offend you and tell you
That I gotta keep moving on
I have this much of timeKeeping it down under the ground
I should have at least try to tell you
When I lost it that I never found it
I lost that in my mindWell, take me
I want you
To show me the way
To find the worldHate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
Yeah, hate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
This timeShow me the plan beginning to end
Send it again and I'm thinking that you better
Make it another friend
I lost you in my lifeWell, take me
I want you
To show me the way
To find the worldHate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
Yeah, hate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
This timeHate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
Yeah, hate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehowYeah, hate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
Yeah, hate me now
Cannot find a better side here somehow
This time
