Nobody

Una Rams

She ain't got nobody
I could be somebody
She don't want nobody

I won't let that stop me

You got my attention
You sparked my interest
Should I mention
How you got me wishing?
Oohh, you got me wishing
I admit I caught some feelings
This is naked truth
These words don't need undressing
Appetite for your affection
Straight up attraction
There's no second guessing
Many are called
But few are chosen
I was hoping I'd get chosen
I seen the guys you've been rejecting
Could I be the exception?

You're alone and you know that Need someone, won't admit it
I'll be here if you need me
If you don't, it's okay, but

â€œ

I won't let that stop me
â€” Una Rams

She ain't got nobody
I could be somebody
She don't want nobody
I won't let that stop me

She ain't got nobody
I could be somebody
She don't want nobody

I won't let that stop me

And I don't wanna see you hurting
Oh, I don't wanna see you cry
It might be too soon to trust me
But it wouldn't hurt to try

I'm not blinded by desire
I can see the pain inside ya
You had no luck
No four-leaf clover
He broke your heart
When he said, "it's over."
You don't want another lover
Wound's still fresh
You want some closure
You don't want nobody closer
You're still afraid someone could hurt ya
Moving on slow
Still trying to get over the other guy
I could ease the pain
Be a blessing in disguise

You're alone, we could that
You deserve to be happy
I'll be here if you need me

She ain't got nobody
I won't let that stop me

You won't get nobody
Ain't no one quite like me
